HOW TO DO IT: Start with a loaded barbell on the floor. Bend your knees while pushing your butt back, hinging forward from the hips so that your torso is parallel with the floor in the starting position. Pull your shoulders back and row the bar to your stomach without moving either your hips or knees. The outside of the facility has gigantic red and yellow signs posted so that you can see the name of the store from far away, probably form an airplane as well. Advertising studies in the 1960s 1980s found that the combination of red and yellow produced the highest amount of sales and new customers, so Honest Ed uses that fact to its successful advantage. The front signage also looks like a movie house marquee with many white lights to breed excitement and curiosity.
